

OCTOBER

MORNING OFFERING

Jesus, give me an experience of your compassion today. Fill me with your life and guide me to see as you see. Fire within me the courage to love.

THE MISSION OF RELIGIOUS

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalised, and those who have no voice.

REFLECTION

Father,

You love all that I am. Make me conscious of the ways you are calling me to fullness of life.

Send your Spirit upon each religious community. Animate them with your abundant love and compassion. Encourage religious in their mission and help them to reach those who most need their presence. Kindle hope in the people they serve.

Make my heart strong and my voice sure so that I may sing your praises with joy.

Our Father; Hail Mary; Glory Be

‘ I hope that the poor may be at the centre of our communities... always; because they are at the heart of the Gospel, and in them we encounter Jesus, who speaks to us and calls to us through their sufferings and their needs.’

POPE FRANCIS, ROME, NOVEMBER 2017.
